2. Untitled land. Naunton Parish Council considers itself the guardian of a number of pieces of untitled land.	These are. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The village green – A small area of grass planted with a cherry tree in front of Littons.  This area also extends towards church bridge and includes the grassed areas running into the river on the right and left hand sides of the bridge on the South side. These give the village population access to the river and allow horse riders to water their horses.</li> <li>2. The small piece of land on the west side at the entrance to Spring Barn. The local W. I. has planted a flowering tree on this semi-circular plot, which measures approximately 5 feet by 4 feet.</li> <li>3. A square walled-in section of land which used to contain a water tank that once supplied water to a number of the village pumps, located at the entrance to Old Well Cottage and taking up part of the grass verge.</li> </ol>	Purchase prices not known. £1 per plot.	£4.
--	--	--	------------

	4. A short section of path and the ground on each side forming the West entrance to the Church Yard. This area also contains a bench and village cast-iron water pump. This plot of land is now also being used by the owner of Littons to gain vehicular access to their garden and stable. This was historically only walking access. These parcels of land have been maintained by the villagers or the Parish Council on behalf of the community over many generations. Registration at the Land Registry has not yet been sought.
